YOUR PASSPORT TO OASIS HAS FINALLY ARRIVED
OASIS ON PARK OPENS ITS DOORS TO NYC

New York, NY October 1, 2001 - Oasis on Park, the second spa from the owners of Oasis Day Spa, one of Manhattan's premier health and beauty spots, will open its doors on Park Avenue on Friday, December 7th. A tribute to relaxation and service, Oasis on Park, a magnificent 7300 square foot facility is located at one of the city's most prestigious areas at 1 Park Avenue between 32nd and 33rd street. Oasis on Park offers the finest in spa treatments and the latest advances in facials, skin treatments, body therapies, massages and a state of the art floatation tank. Oasis on Park will have it all, including:

- 10 spacious massage rooms for singles and couples
- 4 skin care rooms
- 2 wet rooms
- 2 waxing rooms
- spa manicures and pedicures
- hair services
- Thai massage room
- party/conference room
- state of the art floatation tank

As a standard philosophy, Oasis on Park will provide a serene and tranquil environment led by highly skilled and trained, friendly therapists.

"And as with its predecessor Oasis Day Spa, Oasis on Park will stick to our family policy of making patrons feel welcome and comfortable, not intimidated," touts owners, Bruce and Marti Schoenberg. "Our family policy ensures that you will never feel pressured to buy retail products, and our focus will always remain on your services."

Oasis On Park will be able to accommodate parties of up to 30 people for those planning a special, ultra relaxing event.

A special invitation-only launch party is scheduled for January 14, 2002 at Oasis on Park, so save the date and keep your eyes open for the invite.
